

I'm not robot  reCAPTCHA

Continue

Predicate adjective worksheet with answers pdf answers answer keys 1

The author uses the words "ready consent," which means "eager or quickly willing" consent and coins "flung" upon the table to indicate a hurried pace. He would've used scarier content instead of relying on the dark, depressing words and phrases he does. Students will learn that adverbs modify verbs, adverbs and adjectives by telling how, when, where, and to what extent. C. 4. Feel free to use these free printable pdf files for your own educational use, too: Author's Tone Worksheet 1 | Author's Tone Worksheet 1 Answer Key 1. weary The correct answer is A. Have students read the sentences to get a feel for the words: terror C. Nothing about the house itself was particularly depressing. Plane flights are often bumpy. In order to continue enjoying our site, we ask that you confirm your identity as a human. Save time & money with this NO PREP, Print & Go BUNDLE that includes everything needed to teach upper elementary and middle school students about direct objects, indirect objects, predicate nouns (nominatives), & predicate adjectives. Stop! Before you read on, have you completed the Author's Tone Worksheet 1, first? The boat was shiny, new and fast. Direct learners to fill in the blanks with an appropriate word, and share answers with the class. For younger learners, a more visually oriented worksheet would be more appropriate and efficient. 1. Beyond using the worksheet provided here, consider supplementing your predicate adjective lesson plan with some other review activities. satiric B. The author's attitude toward mothers trying to arrange marriages for their daughters could best be described as: A. We know that because he's covered in snow and asks for human charity, which we can only assume is because he's cold. I couldn't get at the heart of my displeasure. 2. The weather is frightening. What's going to come up? It's the job of adjectives to modify nouns, pronouns and even other adjectives. The stranger's lack of manners and thoughtfulness. Some sentences should be missing the noun, others missing the verb, and yet others the predicate adjective. Staff Writer Fourth Grade Adverb Lessons Mastering adverbs is an important part of elementary school English instruction. D. Yes, we know it's because he's uncomfortable, but the phrases indicate speed. 2. The trip (was) long, tiring and boring. You (are) brilliant and strong. The weather (is) frightening. The boat (was) shiny, new and fast. The bear (is) asleep in his cave. It could be that I'd fallen into a nightmare without knowing it. B. Given their importance, it shouldn't be surprising to learn that there are several different types of adjectives. Thank you very much for your cooperation. Here, the answer must closely mirror the language in the text, astonished by the notion D. 3. 5. Types of Adjectives: 12 Different Forms to Know Nouns and verbs are needed to make a complete sentence, but adjectives are just as important. The stranger's discomfort. Choice B and D's sentence structure is too simple and Choice B's answer is incorrect based on the text. His new car is Japanese. Identify the linking verb in each of the following sentences. The solution defied me. 3. Did you identify all of these linking verbs? These lessons introduce adverbs and include independent activities for the students. The predicate adjectives are underlined. What does the author most likely want to convey through the use of the phrase "ready consent to terms and a couple of coins flung upon the table"? Choice A seems logical until you place it up against Choice D, which uses a complex structure and language similar to that already in the text. A. A. 5. The correct answer is B. The stranger is desperate for warmth. View & Download PDF The predicate adjective worksheet will have the student identify the predicate adjective, identify the linking verb and create sentences using both. Build a solid plan using these adverb grade 4 lessons. reproachful D. You may also want to review some predicate adjective examples with them first, so they're even more familiar with the concept. If not, go back, answer the questions and then head back here and find out what you've gotten right and what you may have missed. If you're curious about what author's tone really is and wondering how to figure it out, here are three of the tricks you can use to determine the author's tone when you don't have a clue. Her overreaching statement, "a truth universally acknowledged" is an example of hyperbole, which is an exaggerated statement not meant to be taken literally. And although she may personally be reproachful or scornful of the idea, her tone does not convey it in this satire. It was a mystery I couldn't solve; nor could I grapple with the shadowy fancies that crowded upon me as I pondered. The correct choice is D. 4. And Choice A is completely off! Hence, Choice C is the best answer. Pressed for time? If she were astonished by the idea, then she'd make the husband act aghast when Mrs. accepting of the notion B. She's sarcastic about society's notion of marrying young women off to wealthy men. It had to be the dreariness of the day. That story was very funny. The words used by Poe are complicated, as is his sentence structure. What tone is the author most likely trying to convey with the sentence, "It is a truth universally acknowledged, that a single man in possession of a good fortune must be in want of a wife." A. Use this predicate adjectives worksheet as a tool to help students practice their skills. Any donations will be appreciated. The trip was long, tiring and boring. C. It contains EASY TO GRADE ASSESSMENTS, handouts, worksheets, activities, & projector slides. Communication wouldn't be very interesting without some descriptive terms to enhance sentences and clarify meaning. D. 1. Distribute a worksheet with sentences such as the ones listed above, and have learners circle the verb and underline the predicate adjective. And he wasn't trying to terrify the reader in this scene, either, amused by the notion The correct answer is D. If Austen were irritated by the idea, she'd make the mother more unlikable. Learning how to properly use predicate adjectives is an important skill for students to master. The bear is asleep in his cave. Adjective usage is a key building block of proper grammar and effective communication. Our guest could be late. predicate adjectives worksheet example Teach a complete lesson on predicate adjectives before assigning students to complete this worksheet. hatred B. If he were trying to make the reader feel depressed, he would have spoken to something more personal. Write full sentences on one side, with coordinating pictures on the other. The stranger's desire to quickly get to his room. Bennet brings it up, irritated with the notion C. Even if we read nothing beyond the first line, we'd get the sense that the author was slightly amused by the subject matter. Hence, Choice D is the best bet. 3. B. Some of the questions from the printable worksheet are listed below, in case you'd like to choose just a few items rather than distributing the entire worksheet to your students. You are brilliant and strong. Austen depicts the mother as meddling, gossiping, and impatient. Direct students to connect the picture with the correct sentences by drawing a line. This speaks to the tone of the excerpt as a whole. For assistance with the file, use this printable cheat sheet. The author further makes the scene amusing by pitting a complacent husband against his busybody wife, scornful C. Although the character feels depression upon viewing the house, Poe is trying to make the reader feel apprehension in the scene. So even though we know he is uncomfortable, the correct answer is NOT D. Identify the predicate adjectives in the following sentences. The stranger's greediness in bartering, depression The correct choice is C. Please CLICK on each link below for a full preview of each one of the THREE products available in this BUNDLE. This MONEY SAVING BUNDLE comPage 2 Which of the following choices provides the best answer to the author's final question posed in the text, while maintaining the tone of the article? apprehension D. Which emotion is the author most likely trying to rouse from his reader after reading this text? We have also highlighted the linking verbs in parentheses for review. If she were accepting of the idea, then she probably wouldn't have written about it in a witty way. Reviewing the answers in class can help promote group activity and cooperation. Distribute a worksheet with sentences that are missing words. To download a printable version of the worksheet and answer key in PDF format, just click the image below.

